◀ WHY CHARTERS

YOU ARE IN CONTROL

Air charter means being in total control of your travel. Chartering a private aircraft gives you the opportunity to travel on your terms in luxury and comfort, at your convenience. And, when you factor in the value of your time, and the quality of life that you have earned and deserve, air charter is a perfect fit.

YOUR SCHEDULE, YOUR PREFERENCE

With private air charter services, you choose the flight time, the type of aircraft, the departure airport, arrival airport... even the catering menu. You have the ability to fly into hundreds of airports where commercial airlines can't land, providing quicker access to the cities you want to get to.

RELAX

Forget those crowded airports and long security lines. Start your trip relaxed, knowing you can board your aircraft quickly and easily, with the crew taking care of your luggage and security procedures. Fly into convenient city airports and jump into awaiting ground transportation.

ARRIVE READY AND REFRESHED

Use the quiet, secure environment of the cabin to rest, enjoy a meal, or prepare for an upcoming meeting.

GET HOME SOONER

Private air charter allows you to travel on your schedule, giving you the option of combining trips - even to multiple cities - to lessen your time away from home.

THE VALUE OF YOUR TIME

Private air charter can reduce your total trip time by as much as half by departing on your schedule, reducing your check-in time, flying into the airport nearest to your destination, providing up-close parking and awaiting ground transportation, and so on.
